SD71 ACCESSIBILITY IPAD APPS

login with district Microsoft account student#@learn71.ca

BookCreator

https://t.ly/71book-creator

Create ebooks, comics, social stories and more. Add text, images, audio, video, and drawings to your books, and publish them. Works with Accessiblity Tools

Seeing AI

https://t.ly/71seeing-ai

Narrates the world around you. It can describe text, people, objects, scenes, colours, handwriting and more. Designed for the blind and low vision community, helpful reading support.

Apple Preview

https://t.ly/71applepreview

Take a photo of a document in preview to save as pdf. Mark-up, add text and share out. Listen to text using Accessibility Reader.

Voice Dream

https://t.ly/71voice-dream-reader

Read and listen to text, PDFs, web pages, books and emails. Customize the reading style, voice, speed, font, and colour to suit your preferences and needs. Download novels and textbooks from ARCBC.

Keedogo Keyboard

https://t.ly/71keedogo

Simplified keyboard. Choose lowercase key labels, colour-coded vowels. Five different themes to choose from. Open Dyslexic and high contrast options. Can be used with any app on iPad. 11 languages available.

Claro PDF Pro

https://t.ly/71claro-pdf

Read, annotate, add text or audio comments. Listen to PDF file with a human quality voice and synchronized highlighting. Take a photo -> use built-in OCR (optical character recognition) to create accessible text files.

Read&Write

https://t.ly/71readandwrite-ipad

Keyboard that supports reading, and writing using text-to-speech, word prediction, dictionaries, spell check and more. Use with any app that allows you to type text.

SD71 APPS

https://t.ly/71sd71-apps

"SD71 Top Recommended Apps" lists for subjects, accessibility, executive functioning, eBooks, eText and more. Click the tabs at the top to move between categories.

Assistive Technology Resources

https://t.ly/71assistive-tech

Collection of tips sheets, videos, links and features about the assistive technology supports, tools and apps that SD71 staff and students have access to.