

Children's Rights Think MAT

What matters most to me when I think about children's rights?

How would my life be different if I couldn't go to school?

Even though her life is at risk, why do you think Malala Yousafzai continues to fight for her rights and the rights of other children?

Do some children have fewer rights met than others? Why?