Hooway for Wodney Wat

by Helen Lester, c1999 (IL: K-3, RL: 2.5)

"All his classmates make fun of Rodney because he can't pronounce his name, but it is Rodney's speech impediment that drives away the class bully." - Follett

A Home for Bird

by Philip C. Stead, c2012 (IL: K-3, RL: 2.1)

"While out foraging for interesting things, Vernon the toad finds a new friend—a small blue bird who is curiously silent. Vernon shows Bird the river and the forest and some of his other favorite things, but Bird says nothing. A tender tale of a thoughtful friend who is determined to help his quiet companion." - Follett

If You Plant a Seed

by Kadir Nelson, c2015 (IL: K-3, RL: 3.2)

"If you plant a carrot seed...a carrot will grow. If you plant a cabbage seed...cabbage will grow. But what happens if you plant a seed of kindness... or selfishness? A resonant, gently humorous story about the power of even the smallest acts and the rewards of compassion and generosity." - Pub.

The Invisible String

by Patrice Karst, c2000 (IL: K-3, RL: 2.8)

"Delivers a particularly compelling message in today's uncertain times that though we may be separated from the ones we care for, whether through anger, or distance or even death, love is the unending connection that binds us all, and by extension, ultimately binds every person on the planet to everyone else." - Pub.

Leaf

by Sandra Dieckmann, c2017 (IL: K-3, RL: 3.6)

"When a polar bear arrives unexpectedly in the woods, the animals fear and avoid him, suspecting him to be dangerous - and his habit of collecting leaves only adds to their distrust. Then one day, they watch as he attempts to fly over the water with wings made of colorful leaves...just trying to go home."

- Follett

Lily and the Paper Man

by Rebecca Upjohn, c2007 (IL: K-3, RL: 1.9)

"Walking with her mother on the way home from school one day, Lily runs straight into a gruff and untidy-looking man selling papers on the street. Frightened, Lily insists on taking the bus home every day for fear she will run into him again. But when the weather turns cold, Lily starts to see the Paper Man differently; she sees his bare toes through the holes in his boots and his thin shirt through the holes in his coat." - Pub.

Shelter by Céline Claire, c2017 (IL: K-3, RL: 2.5)

"As a big storm approaches, two strangers arrive in the forest. All the animal families, safe in their homes, are worried. They wonder, 'What are they doing there? What do they want?' So, as the pair knocks at the door of one home after another asking for shelter, all the animals turn them away, leaving them to fend for themselves. But then an accident suddenly forces the fox family out into the snow and the wind, and the foxes find they must ask these outsiders for help. Will they find it in their hearts to give it?" - Pub.

Paulie Pastrami Achieves World Peace

by James Proimos, c2009

"Paulie Pastrami can't whistle, he has trouble matching his socks, and he is usually picked last in sports. But he plans to achieve world peace before he turns eight. Through simple acts of kindness—from reading to the trees and being nice to his little sister to cheering up the school principal and sharing cupcakes with strangers—Paulie learns that spreading peace isn't that hard after all." - Pub.

Come With Me

by Holly M. McGhee, c2017 (IL: K-3, RL: 3.2)

"When the news reports are flooded with tales of hatred and fear, a girl asks her papa what she can do to make the world a better place. "Come with me," he says. Hand-in-hand, they walk to the subway, tipping their hats to those they meet. The next day, the girl asks her mama what she can do—her mama says, "Come with me," and together they set out for the grocery, because one person doesn't represent an entire race or the people of a land." - Pub.

Squirrel's New Year's Resolution

by Pat Miller, c2010 (IL: K-3, RL: 2.7)

"Squirrel doesn't know what a resolution is—happily, Bear the librarian explains it quite well, both to her and to the book's audience. Squirrel then visits her forest friends to see what resolutions they have planned and hopes she'll be able to think of one for herself." - Booklist

I See You by Michael Genhart, c2017

"I See You is a wordless picture book that depicts a homeless woman who is not seen by everyone around her - except for a little boy. Over the course of a year, the boy is witness to all that she endures. Ultimately, in a gesture of compassion, the boy acknowledges her in an exchange in which he sees her and she experiences being seen. This book opens the door for kids and parents to begin a conversation about homelessness." - Amazon.ca
