Hands Up!

by Breanna J. McDaniel, c2020 (IL: K-3, RL: 1.0)

"A young Black girl lifts her baby hands up to greet the sun, reaches her hands up for a book on a high shelf, and raises her hands up in praise at a church service. She stretches her hands up high like a plane's wings and whizzes down a hill so fast on her bike with her hands way up. As she grows, she lives through everyday moments of joy, love, and sadness. And when she gets a little older, she joins together with her family and her community in a protest march, where they lift their hands up together in resistance and strength." - Pub.

All Because You Matter

by Tami Charles, c2020 (IL: K-3, RL: 3.0)

"This powerful, rhythmic lullaby reassures readers that their matter and their worth is never diminished, no matter the circumstance: through the joy and wonder of their first steps and first laughter, through the hardship of adolescent struggles and the pain and heartbreak of current events, they always have, and always will, matter." - Pub.

by Heather Gale, c2019 (IL: K-3, RL: 2.4)

"Ho'onani feels in-between. She doesn't see herself as wahi-ne (girl) OR kane (boy). She's happy to be in the middle. But not everyone sees it that way. When Ho'onani finds out that there will be a school performance of a traditional kane hula chant, she wants to be part of it. But can a girl really lead the all-male troupe? Ho'onani has to try." - Pub.

The Proudest Blue: A Story of Hijab and Family by Ibtihaj Muhammad, c2019 (IL: K-3, RL: 1.6)

"With her new backpack and light-up shoes, Faizah knows the first day of school is going to be special. It's the start of a brand new year and, best of all, it's her older sister Asiya's first day of hijab—a hijab of beautiful blue fabric, like the ocean waving to the sky. But not everyone sees hijab as beautiful, and in the face of hurtful, confusing words, Faizah will find new ways to be strong." - Pub.

Salma the Syrian Chef (Syria) by Danny Ramadan, c2020 (IL: K-3, RL: 2.9)

"All Salma wants is to make her mama smile again. Between English classes, job interviews, and missing Papa back in Syria, Mama always seems busy or sad. A homemade Syrian meal might cheer her up, but Salma doesn't know the recipe, or what to call the vegetables in English, or where to find the right spices! Luckily, the staff and other newcomers in her Welcome Center are happy to lend a hand—and a sprinkle of sumac." - Pub.

When the Cousins Came (Asian American) by Katie Yamasaki, c2018 (IL: K-3, RL: 1.6)

"Lila is excited for her cousins Takeo and Rosie to visit. They're going to ride bikes, paint, and camp together! But when the cousins arrive, everything's wrong: Rosie and Takeo are better painters than Lila, have skateboards instead of bikes, and don't want to camp outside. Lila is terribly disappointed until the cousins make her a surprise: a big banner for their "best cousin" Lila!" - Pub.

Shubh Diwali (Hindu) by Chitra Soundar, c2019 (IL: K-3, RL: 2.7)

"Diwali has arrived Rangoli art decorates the floor and strings of flowers hang around the doors. Now it's time to ring the bells, light the lamps, and welcome the new year with family and friends. A sweet introduction to the Hindu festival of lights." - Pub.
