How to Infer Using Picture Clues and Text: Based on Jane Yolen's book Encounter By: Picture Clues or Words from the book My Own Great Thinking + = "When the sun rose, each great canoe gave birth to many little ones that swam awkwardly to our shore."

An Inference

Picture Clues or Words from the book	+	My Own Great Thinking =	=
We did not know them as human beings, for they hid their bodies in colours, like parrots. Their feet were hidden, also."

By:

An Inference

╋

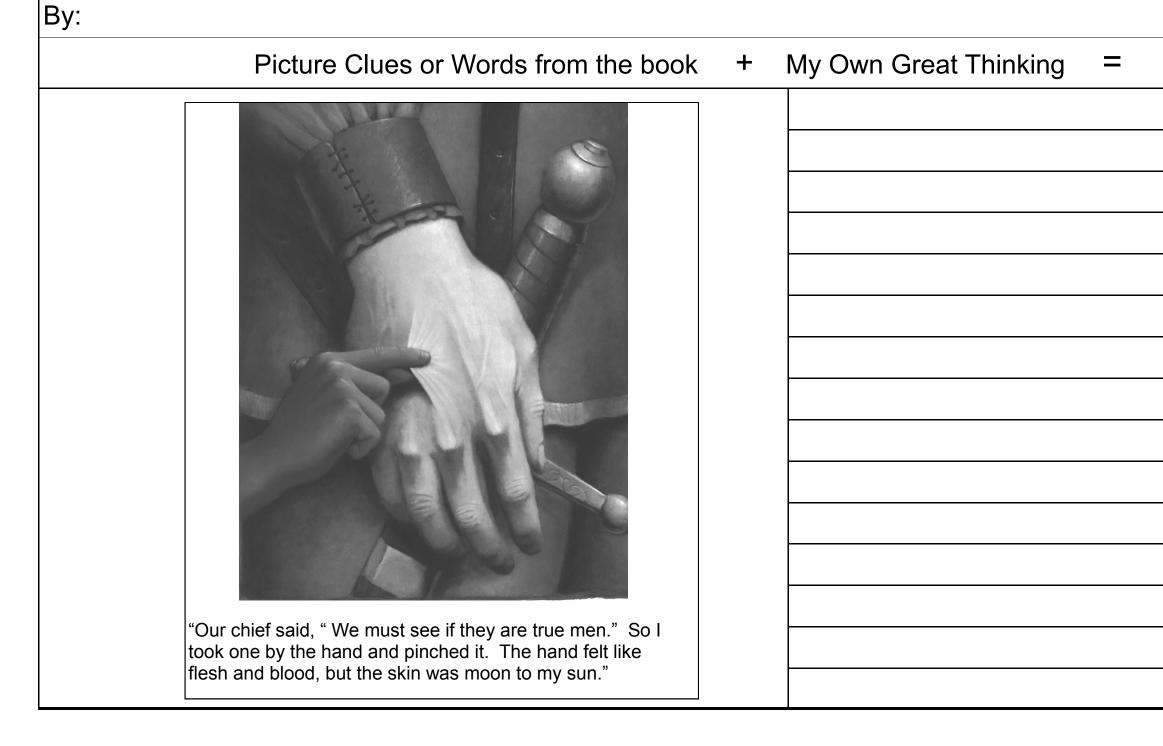

Picture Clues or Words from the book

By:

"And many of them had hair growing like bushes on their chins. Three of them knelt before their chief and pushed sticks into the sand."

My Own Great Thinking	=

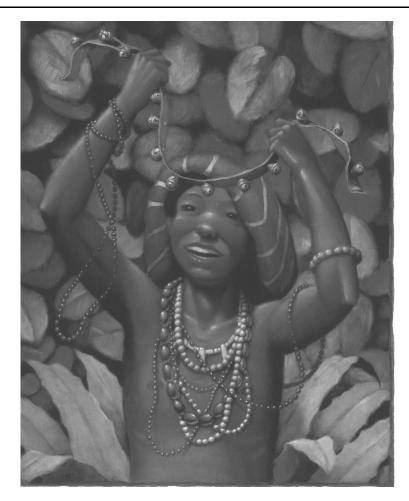

An Inference

An Inference

R	v	•
	y	•

Picture Clues or Words from the book + My Own Great Thinking =

"And they gave hollow shells with tongues that sang chunga-chunga. And they gave woven things that fit upon a man's head and could cover a boy's ears."

An Inference

R	v	•
D	y	•

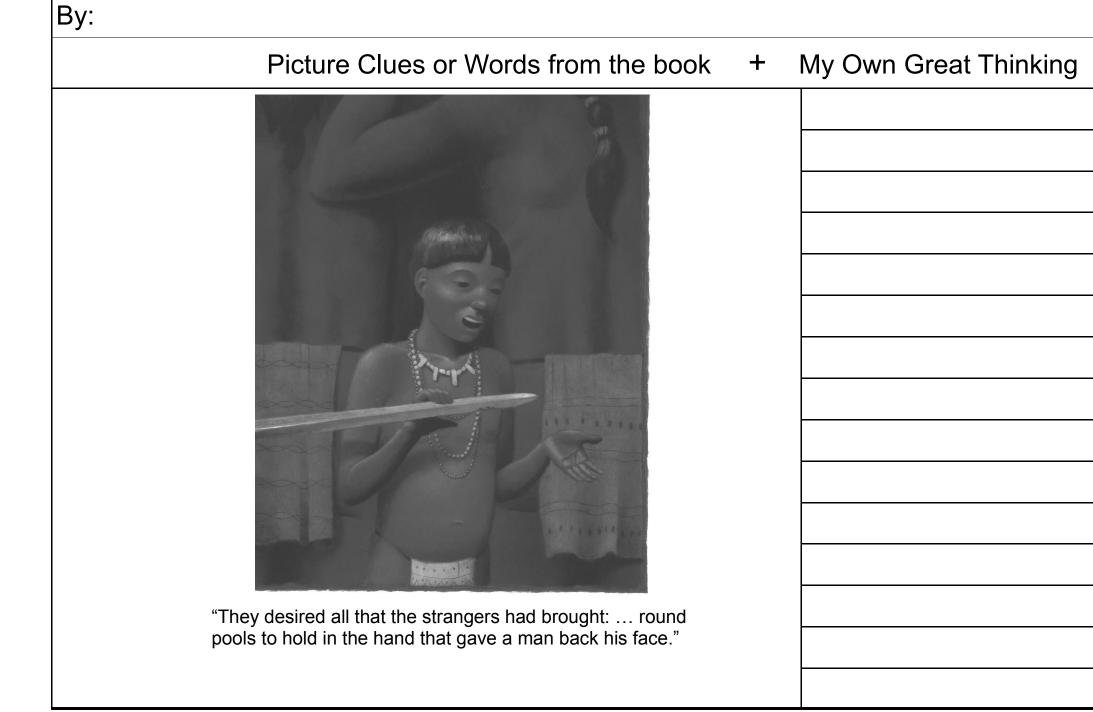

Picture Clues or Words from the book + My Own Great Thinking =

"I ran back under the trees, back to the place where my zemis stood. I fed it little pieces of cassava, and fish and yam from the feast. Then I prayed. Let the pale strangers from the sky go away from us. My zemis stared back at me with unblinking wood eyes."

My Own Great Thinking	=

An Inference

An Inference

=