

Everyday People ~ Sly and the Family Stone

With a lens for valuing diversity, tolerance, equality, and acceptance, what lines or phrases from the song are most meaningful to you? Choose and jot down these lines or phrases below.

---

---

---

Describe the message, viewpoint or lesson the songwriters are trying to convey with these lines/phrases.

---

---

---

Everyday People was written in 1968. Do you believe the message of the song is still relevant today? If so, why? Is it relevant in your school, your community, the nation, the world, or all of them? If not, why not?

---

---

---