

How to use TalkTyper on the Computer

1.		Find the Google Chrome symbol on the desktop of the computer and click on it to open.
2.		In the address bar of the Google Chrome Internet browser, type in talktyper.com Press enter to go to the website.
3.		Plug your microphone into the computer.
4.		When ready, click the green microphone button.
5.		If the computer asks to give permission to use the microphone, click on "Allow".
6.		When ready, click the green microphone button, and begin to speak your sentences slowly and clearly .
7.		Your words appear in the top window. You can edit them if they are not correct using the keyboard or you can rerecord what you wanted to say.
8.		You can hear what you wrote by clicking on the speaker icon.
9.		You "accept" your words by clicking on the green "down arrow" button. Your words will move to the box below.
10.	 Copy and paste to the clipboard  Add punctuation  Print  Delete  Email	There you can... <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • copy and paste your words into another document/program. • add punctuation to your text. • print your work. • delete your work. • email your work.