Winter Is Coming

by Tony Johnston, c2014 (IL: K-3, RL: 1.4)

"Day after day, a girl goes to her favorite place in the woods and quietly watches from her tree house as the chipmunks, the doe, the rabbits prepare for the winter. As the temperature drops, sunset comes earlier and a new season begins. Silently she observes the world around her as it reveals its secrets. It takes time and patience to see the changes..." - Pub.

A Magical Winter: A Photographic Fantasy

by Carl R. Sams II, c2016 (IL: K-3, RL: 3.6)

"A wondrous tale of a white, white-tailed deer who appeared in the woods after a storm. Who is he? Where did he come from? The birds and the animals soon discover in this snowy celebration of a magical winter." - Pub.

Waiting for Winter

by Sebastian Meschenmoser, c2009

"After learning about the joy of snow from Deer, Squirrel waits impatiently for winter to arrive, but his "waiting" wakes his neighbors Hedgehog and Bear, who decide to help Squirrel find winter so they can go back to sleep." - Pub.

Snow

by Uri Shulevitz, c1998 (IL: K-3, RL: 1.6)

"It's snowing," said boy with dog.

"It's only a snowflake," said grandfather with beard.

No one thinks one or two snowflakes will amount to anything. Not the man with the hat or the lady with the umbrella. Not even the television or the radio forecasters. But one boy and his dog have faith that the snow will amount to something spectacular, and when flakes start to swirl down..." - Pub.

Over and Under the Snow

by Kate Messner, c2011 (IL: K-3, RL: 2.0)

"Over the snow, the world is hushed and white. But under the snow exists a secret kingdom of squirrels and snow hares, bears and bullfrogs, and many other animals that live through the winter safe and warm, awake and busy, under the snow. Discover the wonder and activity that lies beneath winter's snowy landscape in this magical book." - Pub.

The First Day of Winter

by Denise Fleming, c2005 (IL: K-3, RL: 1.6)

"Alive with swirling snow and lots of outdoor fun, the first ten days of winter bring special gifts for a special friend. This cumulative tale will have children chanting along as they discover all the trimmings needed for the most perfect snowman ever!" - Pub.

Mouse Celebrates the Winter Solstice

by Terri Mack, c2014 (IL: K-3, RL: 2.1)

"It is winter. The land lies still, quiet and stark beneath a blanket of snow. The tiny footprints of a mouse can be seen in the light of the moon.

"Wrapped in the quiet, and there in the bleak, there stood a wise mouse, preparing to speak."

The words that mouse chose were from many years past. She spoke them into the cold night air. So begins the enchanting story of a very special Winter Solstice celebration." - Pub.

Snack Snooze Skedaddle: How Animals Get Ready For Winter

by Laura Salas, c2019 (IL: K-3, RL: 2.5)

"There is more than one way for animals to prepare for winter. Some, such as mice, foxes, and moose, simply tolerate the cold. Of course black bears hibernate, but chipmunks, wood frogs, and garter snakes do too. And then there are the creatures that migrate, including hummingbirds, blue whales, and even earthworms!" - Pub.

Wonderful Winter

by Bruce Goldstone, c2016 (IL: K-3, RL: 3.4)

"Winter is a season of wondering and waiting. We wonder why some trees lose their leaves while others stay green all winter long. We wait for the first snowfall—and then wonder at how amazing each snowflake is. We wonder how animals manage to live in the cold. And we can't wait to celebrate Christmas, Hanukkah, and Kwanzaa." - Pub.

An Inuksuk Means Welcome

by Mary Wallace, c2015 (IL: K-3)

"An inuksuk is a stone landmark that different peoples of the Arctic region build to leave a symbolic message. Inuksuit (the plural of inuksuk) can point the way, express joy, or simply say: welcome. A central image in Inuit culture, the inuksuk frames this picture book as an acrostic: readers will learn seven words from the Inuktitut language whose first letters together spell INUKSUK." - Pub.
