

Mental Health and Well-Being: Exploring Emotions Through the Reading of Picture Books (Primary)

Note:

The interest levels listed in this bibliography are those given by the publishers. Each teacher, however, needs to decide the age suitability for their own students.

The summaries are from the publishers as well and have been included to give you a quick overview of the main themes of each title. In this way you can quickly select the titles that suit the particular social and emotional needs of your students. Some of the titles fit the theme loosely and others more tightly. The titles also range from "light-hearted" to more serious in tone.

Your school counsellor is an excellent source for suggestions on how to support students when teaching more sensitive subjects.

Today I Feel... An Alphabet of Feelings by Madalena Moniz, c2017 (IL: K-3)

"Beautifully illustrated by Madalena Moniz's subtle watercolors, Today I Feel... follows a child through a whole range of emotions, from adored to curious to strong. Not all of the emotions are positive and not all of them are simple, but they are all honest and worthy of discussion with a young child." - Pub.

The Color Monster by Anna Ikenas, c2018 (IL: K-3, RL: 2.1)

"One day, Color Monster wakes up feeling very confused. His emotions are all over the place; he feels angry, happy, calm, sad and scared all at once. To help him, a little girl shows him what each feeling means through color. As this adorable monster learns to sort and define his mixed up emotions, he gains self-awareness and peace as a result." - Pub.

The Way I Feel by Janan Cain, c2021 (IL: K-3)

"Children experience complex emotions just like adults and helping them identify and express their feelings in a positive manner is important for their social-emotional learning, developing empathy, and building resilience. Feelings are neither good nor bad, they simply are. Kids need words to name their feelings, just as they need words to name all things in their world. The Way I Feel uses strong, colorful, and expressive images which go along with simple verses to help children connect the word and the emotion" - Pub.

Tough Guys Have Feelings Too by Keith Negley, c2015 (IL: K-3, RL: 2.8)

"A boldly illustrated picture book read-aloud about how everyone gets sad--ninjas, wrestlers, knights, superheroes, everyone...even daddies have emotions!" - Pub.

In My Heart: A Book of Feelings

by Jo Witek, c2014, (IL: K-3, RL: 2.1)

"Sometimes my heart feels like a big yellow star, shiny and bright. I smile from ear to ear and twirl around so fast, I feel as if I could take off into the sky. This is when my heart is happy. Happiness, sadness, bravery, anger, shyness . . . our hearts can feel so many feelings! Some make us feel as light as a balloon, others as heavy as an elephant. In My Heart explores a full range of emotions, describing how they feel physically, inside." - Pub.

Grumpy Duck

by Joyce Dunbar, c2019 (IL: K-3, RL: 1.7)

"Duck is in a very grumpy mood. The pond is dry, and she doesn't want to roll in the mud with Pig, sing with Rooster, doze with Tortoise, eat laundry with Goat, or join any of the other animals in their pastimes. To make matters worse, the gray cloud that's following Duck is growing bigger by the minute, and now her friends are feeling gloomy as well. What will it take to cheer them all up?" - Pub.

Grumpy Monkey

by Suzanne Lang, c2018 (IL: K-3, RL: 2.2)

"... dealing with unexplained feelings...and the danger in suppressing them. Jim the chimpanzee is in a terrible mood for no good reason. His friends can't understand it—how can he be in a bad mood when it's SUCH a beautiful day? They encourage him not to hunch, to smile, and to do things that make THEM happy. But Jim can't take all the advice...and has a BIT of a meltdown. Could it be that he just needs a day to feel grumpy?" - Pub.

Way Past Mad

by Hallee Adelman, c2020 (IL: K-3, RL: 1.9)

"Keya is way past mad. Her little brother Nate messed up everything--even breakfast. She heads to school kicking rocks and sticks. When her best friend Hooper tries to help, Keya shouts, 'I don't even like you.' It's not true, but Hooper storms off, kicking rocks and sticks too. Keya gave him her mad! Now it's up to Keya to find a different way past mad and to make things right." - Pub.

Maya Was Grumpy

by Courtney Pippin-Mathur, c2013 (IL: K-3, RL: 1.9)

"Maya Was Grumpy celebrates the power of imagination and humor to improve moods. Maya wakes up on the wrong side of the bed, tangled in her blanket, and in a crispy, cranky, grumpy, grouchy mood. She doesn't want to color or wear her favorite shorts or go outside to play. What's worse, she's determined to share her grumpiness with everyone as she glumps, clumps, and thumps around the house. But when Maya growls at her grandmother, she graciously takes Maya's mood in stride..." - Pub

Crankenstein

by Samantha Berger, c2013 (IL: K-3, RL: 1.7)

"A boy who looks ordinary transforms into grumbling Crankenstein when faced with a rainy day, a melting popsicle, or bedtime, but everything changes when he meets a fellow Crankenstein." - Follett

The Bad Seed

by Jory John, c2017 (IL: K-3, RL: 2.0)

"This is a book about a bad seed. A baaaaaaaaaad seed. How bad Do you really want to know He has a bad temper, bad manners, and a bad attitude. He's been bad since he can remember! This seed cuts in line every time, stares at everybody and never listens. But what happens when one mischievous little seed changes his mind about himself, and decides that he wants to be-happy?" - Pub.

- Follett

Rita & Ralph's Rotten Day
by Carmen Agra Deedy, c2020 (IL: K-3, RL: 1.4)

"Rita and Ralph live on neighboring hills and they are best friends, until a silly accident while goofing around ends up with both of them angry and unhappy—and they both need to find a way to heal the break in their relationship." - Follett

Daniel's Good Day
by Micha Archer, c2019 (IL: K-3, RL: 2.3)

"...what exactly is a good day? Daniel is determined to find out, and as he strolls through his neighborhood, he finds a wonderful world full of answers as varied as his neighbors. For Emma, a good day means a strong wind for kite flying. For the bus driver, a good day means pleases and thank-yous. A good day is bees for the gardener, birthdays for the baker, and wagging tails for the mail carrier. And, for Daniel's grandma, a good day is a hug from Daniel! And when Daniel puts all these good days together, they make a lovely poem full of his neighbors' favorite things." - Pub.

The Most Magnificent Thing

by Ashley Spires, c2014 (IL: K-3, RL: 2.9)

"[A little girl] is going to make the most MAGNIFICENT thing! She knows just how it will look. She knows just how it will work. All she has to do is make it, and she makes things all the time. Easy-peasy!? But making her magnificent thing is anything but easy, and the girl tries and fails, repeatedly. Eventually, the girl gets really, really mad. She is so mad, in fact, that she quits. But after her dog convinces her to take a walk, she comes back to her project with renewed enthusiasm and manages to get it just right." - Pub

Little Brown

by Marla Frazee, c2018 (IL: K-3, RL: 2.0)

"Little Brown is one cranky canine because no one ever plays with him at the animal shelter. Or maybe no one ever plays with him because he is cranky. Either way, Little Brown decides today is the day to take action, so he takes all of the toys and sticks and blankets from all of the dogs at the shelter and won't give them back. But what will happen now?" -Pub.

Gloria's Big Problem

by Sarah Stiles Bright, c2020 (IL: K-3, RL: 2.7)

"Gloria loves to sing, dance, and act in her bedroom, but not in public. No way. Gloria's big problem makes sure of that, following her wherever she goes and constantly reminding her that she's anxious and frightened, that she's not good enough, and that everyone will laugh at her. Anxious Gloria worries all the time, about everything. Until, one day, Gloria summons all her courage to try out for a community theater production. her... And then at last she yells "STOP!", and her big problem shrinks to a little problem, and Gloria wins a part in the play."
