

CLEAR GOALS

- Learning goals posted daily
- Tasks broken into simple steps
- Homework and deadlines visible
- Rubrics focus on learning, not format

WAYS TO LEARN

- Instructions shown and spoken
- Use read-alouds, visuals, and group work
- Word banks and sentence starters
- Hands-on tools to support thinking

LOW TECH

GET READY TO LEARN

- Build background knowledge
- Pre-teach key vocabulary
- Use visuals, models, and examples
- Provide graphic organizers and scaffolds

WAYS TO SHOW LEARNING

- Choice of written, oral, or hands-on work
- Checklists track progress
- Options for topic, order, partners, or format

NO TECH

SUPPORTIVE ENVIRONMENT

- Spaces for quiet, group, and creative work
- Flexible seating and lighting
- Predictable routines
- Easy-to-read, high-contrast materials

STAY ENGAGED

- Real-world connections
- Movement, discussion, and brain breaks
- Engaging intro activities
- “Get Ready – Do – Done” helps track steps
